

Trump dropped another huge wad in military expense attacking Syria last night. Each of those Tomahawk cruise missile babies cost at least 1.5 million, with over 100 launched. Add in plane attacks and command and control, the whole thing approached 200 million spent in the last few hours. Add in the attack last year and it's close to half a billion.

That's a lot of miles in border fencing down south.

Looks like Israel's Zionist hegemony in the Mideast is much more important to Trump. In fact, we'll give Israel enough moolah in the next couple of years to totally pay for US security on the border. No doubt about it: Trump is fully in the Jew's pocket.

I've always said here on my site that America is Israel's bitch.

Looking back over time, one can easily see them manipulating America. Israel has followed a clever, long-running geopolitical plan to reduce the surrounding Muslim nations into small, warring enclaves of Shia versus Sunnis. Funny how every single enemy of Israel and the Jews always ends up attacked by America eventually. Egypt and Jordan are bribed big time with our tax dollars (about 3 billion per year) not to do anything bad to Israel, so you can add that into your equations.

Now, you might be saying “what about all those poor little kiddies gassed by Assad?” Well, sure. Nobody likes seeing children suffer. If in fact it really happened like they tell us. But it’s extremely easy to false flag us in that part of the world. MOSSAD elements could easily have done it. You don’t think MOSSAD operates there? Don’t make me laugh.

And why would Assad do such a thing when he’s so close to eliminating Syrian and ISIS opposition forces? Plus, Trump promised less than 2 weeks ago America was pulling out. Funny, how all this crap happened since then.

We’ve seen numerous staged events, or “atrocities propaganda,” over the decades getting us into wars for the Zionist Mideast agenda. It might not come out for years, but by then few even remember the situation at the time. Sheep have little long-term memory.

Do you remember that Kuwaiti chick crying over babies dumped out of incubators in Kuwait by evil Saddam Hussein’s soldiers? That turned out to be a big lie. The chick was the daughter of the Kuwaiti ambassador to the US and she was never even there! She was coached and promoted by Tom Lantos, a congress Jew and big time Zionist.

The manipulators of American public opinion love using children to jerk our chains. They even use it all the time to get us to accept the Muslim invasions of our lands. Remember the dead refugee kid on the beach? But you never see them show dead Palestinian kids, now do they?

Oh great... now we got Wakanda helping out in wars for Zionist Jew Mideast hegemony.
