

s is just so ridiculous.

I can't believe all the BS out of the media in the last week over the so-called big anniversary of Charlottesville. It's all ginned-up crap to push more liberal, multicult brainwashing down White people's throats.

First off, Heather Heyer wasn't even touched by the car. She died of a massive heart attack. Plain and simple. She was an overweight SJW (social justice warrior) nutcase walking all over the town in the vain hopes of meeting up with some Nazis she could scream at (they had all left by then). She smoked Newports, for crying out loud. It was hot that day. When that car came through, she fell over on her fat face and had a heart attack right then and there. There's a street interview with her mother who said it was a heart attack.

America is being totally brainwashed by the left. The media is behind all of it. Even FOX news doesn't tell you the full story.*

James Fields, the guy who drove the Challenger, may have been scared out of his wits.

Some ANTIFA guy along with his bros, is said to have approached his car not long before with AR-15s. I can believe it. You think for one second the media is going to track him down for a street interview? That's only for us White "haters." I saw a hit piece on FRONTLINE (PBS) where they did a huge attack on us Whites there that day. They've completely now turned us into the big evil baddies — even though we were there simply standing up for our race's rights and our heritage!

media lies all the time. Have for decades. Often, they simply let people think the way they want them to think. Sometimes they do little tricky things, like in this case they are said to have speeded up the video to make it look like Fields was going like a bat out of hell. They have definitely been brainwashing White people!

I take a perverse pleasure in having carried this Spike's lower in the defense of Justice Park on August 12th. I used this rifle to chase off James Fields from our block of 4th St before he attacked the marchers to the south. Spike's needs a good lesson in ethics and antifascism.

This ANTIFA guy, Dwayne Dixon, brags about scaring off James Fields, the driver of the Challenger, right before the incident shown on TV over and over. "Spike's lower" refers to the manufacturer of his rifle's receiver (nice touch with the OD green Magpul parts and red dot sight). Don't expect any of the media to do an ambush-style interview of this skinny little bastard, nor see him suffer problems with his job (he's a professor at a college). They only want you to think us pro-Whites are violent gun nuts!

I noticed on that FRONTLINE hit piece they said nothing about that pro-White guy at Charlottesville, Andrew Dodson, who committed suicide because he was doxxed by a Jew newspaperman and lost his job. Funny how they know exactly the stories NOT to say anything about. They don't want the casual White person to get it, now do they?

I believe I saw James Fields at the Robert E. Lee park. I think I was standing right behind him. There was all these Whites dressed ready for battle. Helmets, plywood shields, bullet-proof vests, you name it. They were dressed like that because they knew they would be attacked by the leftist ANTIFA. And boy, that's exactly what happened!

I wasn't dressed for it, simply because I had no friggin' idea of what was in store. I literally was clueless on how bad it is with leftist violence. They were the ones attacking us. We were there to simply express solidarity with Robert E. Lee (a truly decent, heroic American, regardless of sides). This slavery and Nazi holocaust crap never seems to end, now does it?

Oh, guess what? The ALT-Right people were mostly unarmed. The armed ones they show you over and over on TV were the "THREE-PERCENTERS;" who are a "constitutionalist," pro-gun group and usually too chicken-sh*t to say anything about blacks or Jews. Alt-Right organizers didn't even let them join the demonstration in Lee park for fear of gun issues. I only saw one pro-White chick (a real hottie, I noted) and maybe one guy with AR's in the park. I also saw another guy with a flintlock rifle, if you can believe it. Unknown if he had a black powder charge and ball inside.

You can tell who the THREE-PERCENTERS are since they love dressing in matching Multicam camo. Lefty ANTIFA love the hodge-podge commie street fighter look, or maybe the all black punk rocker ensemble.

On the way back home from Charlottesville, I kept thinking about all my friends and family who had zero idea about this kind of thing going on. They only thing they know is what the stinking lying media is telling us. Whites who have the courage to stand up to these rats are now being portrayed as evil, violent skinheads — even if we're just regular joes like myself. Hell, pro-Trump people are now being portrayed as Nazis, too.

If you're a White person coming here for the first time, you had better wake the flock up.

"If you're not outraged, you're not paying attention."

Heather Heyer
1985 - 2017

Idiot liberals like the one who did this art, have sucked down the lefty media narrative hook, line and sinker. They seem clueless to the Jew brainwashing.t

We got ourselves a Mao Zedong-type Cultural Revolution crap being foisted on America by the stinking, Nation-Wrecking Commie Jews. No doubt about it. These Jew rats are definitely going to be the death of America — if we let them.

— Phillip Marlowe

I would not at all be surprised if well-funded leftist organizations paid to bus leftys from all over into places like DC this past weekend. I believe Jews like Soros and the Lewis family (Progressive Insurance) money is involved. Funny, how news operations like FOX don't do any big exposés about any of it. What we got going on is a serious Jew effort to keep Whites screwed up in America.*

†“If you're not outraged, you're not paying attention” is an ancient activist phrase from an unknown someone long ago, found on Heather's FB page. She did NOT come up with it. These days, it's really a message best suited to any casual, middle-of-the-road, White person, then some idiot lefty. Think it out!
