

mo "taking care" of newly adopted children.

Homos have an insatiable appetite for the flesh of our young, and nothing will stand in the way of their unnatural cravings.

Not satisfied with gay “adoption” merely being legal, the faggot lobby is now trying to make it mandatory.

They’re attacking Christian adoption agencies for their policy to refuse these sodomite predators the privilege to adopt children, and so far, the court seems to be siding with the faggots.

A federal judge Friday in Michigan allowed a lawsuit to move forward that experts say impacts faith-based charities across the country that provide adoption services as well as LGBT couples seeking to adopt and foster children.

Judge Paul D. Borman

The case, Dumont v. Lyon, focuses on whether faith-based adoption agencies that receive state funding can turn away same-sex couples for religious reasons.

Don't worry goyim, the gays will take good care of your children, huehuehue.

It's one of the first cases of its kind, and experts say it's likely to set a legal precedent for courts and legislatures nationwide. The Deseret News covered the case in-depth in May.

In September 2017, the ACLU sued the state of Michigan on behalf of two same-sex couples and a former foster child, arguing that the state is violating the First Amendment's establishment clause by allowing faith-based agencies that receive state funds to deny services to same-sex couples.

In July, the state and one of the faith-based adoption agencies, St. Vincent Catholic Charities of Lansing, Michigan, filed a motion to dismiss the case.

To be honest, these days I'm not too comfortable with religious Catholic charities. The Catholic church has already been exposed as being infiltrated by sodomites.

However, that's still better than literally letting faggots adopt the children.

This is insane.

Imagine giving away your child to a Christian adoption center, and then learning that the courts forced them to give leave them with a bunch of perverts who are sure to abuse, rape and torture your kid for years.

Might

as well allow ogres and trolls to adopt kids.

Judge Paul D. Borman of the Eastern District Court of Michigan denied the motion. He wrote that St. Vincent's arguments that prohibiting the state from allowing the use of religious criteria would violate the agency's First Amendment rights of free religious exercise and free speech were irrelevant to the plaintiff's claims at this stage in the case, and he was not convinced that St. Vincent would prevail on that claim in the end.

"Much of St. Vincent's argument relating to its First Amendment claims relies on matters outside the pleadings that the court cannot consider at this stage of proceedings and that in many instances directly contradict the allegations of plaintiffs' complaint," Borman wrote.

But the judge found the plaintiffs, Kristy and Dana Dumont, and Erin and Rebecca Busk-Sutton, had suffered "stigmatic and practical harm" as a result of the state entering into contracts with agencies that used religious criteria to exclude same-sex couples.

Borman is a Jew, of course.

Tom Borman is a known Jew. Paul married a high-level Jewess, too

These people are taking great delight in delivering goyim children unto the hands of soulless monsters, to be abused and broken.

Welp, that just means White people can no longer use adoption agencies. Do the act, raise the brat.

One way or another, no one of good conscience could allow their offspring to be metaphorically devoured by metaphorical ogres.

Thanks, Jews.
