Did you see this? Police ID driver of the car that did the drive-by, killing poor little black child, Jazmine Barnes, and wounded mother in the arm. Turns out to be black(s). ABC ran continuous stories about it on national dinner time news showing the mother and prominently displayed the evil Whitey police sketch (above). Crowds of angry blacks waving placards screamed bloody murder about racist Whitey. Totally ridiculous.

Supposedly, the shooter or accomplice in the car was black, too.

This is so typical. They are looking for absolutely anything to make us Whites the evil baddies all the time. Haven't I been telling you about the traitorous anti-White media from the very beginning?

On my home page they had a report on the apprehension but somehow forgot to run the black perp's mug shot. Now watch the story disappear down the rabbit hole. This happens all the time, actually. But this particular case is so blatant, they might even do a "JEW-jitsu" reversal and show the perps on national TV.*

Friggin' leftys were all over the place acting like this was but another example of evil White right-wingers.

Haven't you noticed how when some White chick goes missing, who happens to be hooked up with a White guy, and the media thinks it's a good possibility the White dude killed her butt, they go into over-drive? They immediately send out associate producers out to the area, while prepping onscreen talent for out-of-NY city work.

Believe me: Reporters, producers and even high-up media people make bothering calls to cops, local media (owned by the giant media conglomerates so jobs are at risk) and sometimes to local politicians trying to figure out if the cops suspect the White guy one little bit. Then they run with it.

At first, they play it coy — like nobody knows anything right yet. It's all very formulaic now.

If they have reason to think she was a Mudshark, they say nothing at all. But practically all mudshark cases are solved in hours, anyway. Only occasionally do idiot Negroes manage to hide bodies — they usually resort to fire, being psycho apes.

In this case, the drug-addled mother and 15 year-old black daughter in the target car said it was a White guy with blue eyes. The sketch artist simply made him out as White. That was more than enough to unleash the media BS.

I guarantee you another black in the 'hood recognized the car and knew such-and-such homie was gunning for a certain other Gangsta boy and made the call to collect the anonymous reward tip money. Some White-hater someplace was offering $100K to find "the White guy."

Heboon or sheboon, is having a good time tonight!

If you're a White person, you need to say something so other Whites know of the story. This anti-White crap is getting so ridiculous!

That's what they did alright~*
